Wednesday, November 10 1703

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 10.

Genoa, October 15.

BY a Vessel come in seven days from Barcelona we have Advice, that the Galleys commanded by the Duke of Turis lay in that Harbour, and that 12 French Galleys were arriv'd there from Cadix, on their way to Marseilles. Above 800 Men of the Troops of Savoy that were disarm'd by the French, have found Means to get hither; and will go from hence to Piemont to serve their Master. They write from Provence, that 10 French Galleys are put to Sea from Toulon, to get Intelligence of the Motions of the Confederate Fleet.

Milan, October 17. The Duke of Savoy has, 'tis said, agreed with the Canton of Bern for 4000 Men, which are actually on their March towards the Frontiers of Savoy. 'Tis said likewise that the Marquess de Parella will have the chief Command of the Troops of the Duke of Savoy, under his Royal Highness. The French Troops which pass'd by Pavia towards the Frontiers of Piemont, were in number 15000 Men, and had with them 30 Pieces of Cannon.

Venice, October 27. We have Letters from Casal, which say, that the Duke of Savoy has caus'd all the Effects belonging to the French and Milanese Merchants to be seiz'd and brought to Turin. That he has likewise order'd all the Merchants of that City, to bring into his Treasury the Sums they are severally indebted to the French Merchants with whom they have Commerce; which 'tis said will amount to more than 2 Millions. All his Subjects from 18 years old to 40, are commanded to appear arm'd when and where the Service of their Country may require them. On the 20th great Shooting was heard from San Benedetto, whence 'tis conjectur'd there has been some Action. 'Tis reported that the Nobility of Spain are divided into two Parties, one for the House of Austria, the other for that of Bourbon.

Vienna, October 27. Yesterday arriv'd a Courier from the Army in Italy, with Advice, that the Prince of Vaudemont is come to San Benedetto to command the French Army in the Absence of the Duke of Vendome. That General Staremberg has sent Count Visconti with 1500 Horse and 200 Hussars to joyn the Troops of Savoy in Piemont, who on the 19th at Night pass'd the Secchia, arriv'd the next day at Reggio, and continues his March through Parma and Piacenza towards Alexandria. A Courier from the Court of Savoy was arriv'd in Count Staremberg's Camp.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 10.

Turin, October 23. On the 21st in the Morning the Regiment of Foot of Schuylenburg march'd from hence towards Ivrea. That Afternoon 6 Regiments of the Militia of this City rendezvous'd in the Square before the Castle: They pass'd in review before his Royal Highness, who saluted the chief Officers with his Hat in his Hand. Yesterday a Regiment of Dragoons were sent towards Ivrea; and last Night some Troops of his Royal Highness's Household march'd from hence, to convoy thither a great Quantity of Provisions. 1500 Horses are bought up for Mounting some Troops which will be call'd the little Hussars. This Morning 4 Troops of his Royal Highness's Life-guard march'd for Ivrea; and within an hour after were follow'd by his Royal Highness himself, accompanied by 50 of his principal Officers. A great quantity of Ammunition Bread is order'd to be bak'd at Asti.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 8.

Lorrain, Nov. 1. Letters from Paris advise, that Monsieur de Pointy is gone to Brett, to sail from thence in a Ship of 100 Guns for the Mediterranean. Some Letters from Thoulon say, it was reported, that the French Fleet commanded by the Count de Thoulouse, will sail to Cadix, to dispute the Passage of the Straits with the Confederate Fleet, which is suppos'd to be returning home out of the Mediterranean. 'Tis further advis'd from Paris, that the Duke of Savoy has put 2 Battallions and 400 Dragoons into Susa; which Place the Marshal de Thesse has Orders to besiege.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 10.

Maefricht, Nov. 7. On the 5th an Exchange was made at Borchloen of the Regiment of Eltz against 5 or 600 French Prisoners that were sent from hence 4 days ago; the said Regiment of Eltz arriv'd here that Evening after the Exchange was made. The Count de Reignac and other French and Spanish Officers, continue still here, the Enemy having no Prisoners of equal Quality to give in Exchange for them. The Troops on both sides continue to march into Winter Quarters.

Breda, Nov. 7. They write from Hulst that some French Ingeniers and others, came within reach of the Cannon of Fort Kykuit, and seem'd to have a Design to choose a proper Ground for raising a Battery, but 2 or 3 Cannon-shot being made at them they retir'd. 'Tis said however that the Enemy is throwing up a Line a little further off. Yesterday the English Regiments of Stanhope, Stuart and Portmore, with a Squadron of Horse, without Horses, and 18 Men of each Company of the Regiment of St. Amant were embark'd at Gertruydenburg for the Texel. The Regiment of Barrimore waits for the Vessels that are to carry them.

Hague, Nov. 8. To day the King of Spain took the Diversion of Hunting about Honstaerdyke, accompanied by several Persons of Quality, and attended by a Guard of Horse. General Fagel was this Morning in Conference with the Deputies of the States, his Excellency with the General Officers that are to serve under him in the Expedition to Portugal will shortly embark, their Baggage being already on board. The Officers of the Regiments appointed for that Service, are all gone to the Texel, where Messieurs Groeninx and Coehorn depured by the States, are to muster these Forces and see them embark'd.

bark'd. The Regiment of Freisheim march'd from hence thither to day for that purpose. An Express is arriv'd in less than 7 days from Vienna, bringing Letters from the Imperial Court to the King of Spain, acquainting him that a Body of the Rebels in Hungary have been lately defeated. There is advice from Frankfort that the French will turn the Siege of Landau into a Blockade. The Hereditary Prince of Hesse Cassel has receiv'd great Reinforcements in his March, and advances upwards by swift Marches.

London, Nov. 9. This day the Queen came in a Chair to the House of Peers, and the Commons being sent for up, Her Majesty made a most Gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament.

At the Desire of several Forreign Ministers.

THE Famed Beautifying Secret, experienc'd these 20 Years, and admir'd by all that use it, being no Deceit but a real Beautifier, as acknowledg'd lately under the Hands of divers Persons of repute, it making the Face and Skin so surprizingly white, soft and smooth, as that those who have us'd it, have been even the Wonder of the World, for the exquisite Beauty and Fairness it has given them, no Cosmetick, Wash, Water, Powder, or other thing whatsoever being ever found to come near it; it takes away Wrinkles, hides even old Age it self, renders those Amiable that are disfigur'd with the Small Pox, perfectly removes Yellowness, Tanning, Freckles, Spots, Pimples, Redness, Scurf Morphew, &c. thoroughly changing the Skin, tho' never so foul or defil'd, into an absolute and durable Whiteness, and yet is nothing of Mercury or Paint, but a Liquor of a pleasing Scent, as clear and harmless as fair Water, as manifestly appears by the printed Directions. It also immediately heals Chopt Lips and Hands, whitening the latter to admiration: If rub'd about the Eyes, wonderfully strengthens the Sight and Optick Nerves; drop'd into the Ears helps Deafness, and eases the most violent Pains in the Ears; mix'd with Whitewine, makes the best Gargle in the World to sweeten the Breath, whiten and fatten the Teeth, Cure the Scurvy in the Gums and Tooth-ach; rubbing it among the Hair prevents its shedding, makes it grow thick, and in time changes Red Hair into lightish Brown; mix'd with the Laver in shaving the Head and Face, makes the Razor go mighty easie, and admirably comforts the Brain and prevents taking Cold; and is an excellent Remedy for Palsies, Pains and Aches, Cramps, &c. All which it truly performs, if us'd according to the Directions, it having no more Virtues ascrib'd to it than what are really inherent. 'Tis to be had only at Mr. Varen's a Bookseller at the Sign of Seneca's Head near Somerset-house in the Strand. Price 5 s. the Bottle.

THE right Venetian Stropps, compleatly fix'd on Boards for setting Razors, Penknives, &c. upon, instead of a Hoane, very useful for Surgeons, Barbers and others, experienc'd to be much more durable and smooth, never growing rough by using, setting them with greater fineness and exactness, and with much less trouble than any yet known, preserving their edge so, as for a long time together to have no need of being Ground, at 1 s. each. Also the famed Metal Boards of the same size, for whetting Case-knives, &c. upon, which hardly ever waists or wears out, immediately grinding and giving them an extraordinary sharp edge beyond any Whetstone, Whetting-board, or Steel, very useful for all Families, as well as Taverns, Eating-houses, Shoemakers, and other Trades. Are sold only at Mr. Allcraft's at the Bluecoat Boy the corner of Pope's-head-Ally against the Royal Exchange, Cornhill; at Mr. Girard's at the Three Flower-de-Luces near Northumberland-house, Charing-Cross, Toy-shops; and at Mr. Brook's a Stationer at the Ship near the May-Pole in the Strand, also at 1 s. each, with Directions for both.
